

MEMBERSHIP ADMISSION STANDARDS

The IIC is a professional, educational and honorary association of commercial insolvency and bankruptcy professionals, including lawyers, law professors, trustee/financial advisors and officers of lending institutions and others who are dedicated to the improvement of the insolvency process and the enhancement of the professional quality of and public respect for the commercial insolvency and bankruptcy practice.

By granting them membership, the Institute honours those professionals whose sustained performance in the practice of their profession exemplifies the highest standards of professionalism among insolvency specialists. Membership shall be restricted by invitation to honour those individuals who have proven to their peers, through long, continuous performance in their insolvency speciality that they possess: (i) the highest professional qualifications and ethical standards; (ii) a high level of character, integrity, professional expertise and leadership which demonstrates the likelihood that they will continue to contribute to the enhancement of insolvency scholarship, continuing education and the insolvency process; (iii) a commitment to fostering and furthering the objectives of the IIC; (iv) sustained, exceptionally high quality professional services to clients, bar and public; (v) significant evidence of scholarship, teaching, lecturing, and/or distinguished published writings on bankruptcy practice, procedure, philosophy, improvements and reforms, which demonstrates a consistent contribution to the enhancement of bankruptcy and insolvency literature, education and the insolvency process.

Members are required to contribute to the IIC and those individuals submitting applications to join the organization should clearly understand that they will be expected to prepare and present or co-present at least one paper for inclusion in the journal published periodically through the IIC symposium committee. Additional anticipated participation over the course of an individual's membership also includes serving on committees and attending regional networking and professional development events such as the annual conference.

Nominees for consideration as an Insolvency Practitioner Member of IIC:

- (i) Any lawyer who is a member in good standing of the law society of any province or territory in Canada for at least 10 years, whose principal activity has been primarily in the area of commercial insolvency law, and who meets the Membership Admission Standards; or
- (ii) Any accountant, trustee or financial advisor who has practiced principally in the area of commercial insolvency, and who either (a) has held the designation of a licensed trustee in bankruptcy or other appropriate designation for at least 10 years or (b) has been involved in the insolvency field for at least 10 years; and who meets the Membership Admission Standards;

A nominee, whose credentials demonstrate a sufficient number of the above criteria so as to identify the nominee as distinguished, pre-eminent commercial insolvency professional, shall be eligible to be honoured by admission to membership.
